THE TEAM

Martha leads EnJoy's events division. An aerialist, actress and director, she has designed and produced entertainment for hundreds of events, from 25,000-person Amazon parties to intimate gatherings.

Kevin is a comedian, musician, host and auctioneer. He has MC'd over 400 events, bringing EnJoy's signature customized messaging, humor and positive spirit to parties, meetings, award shows and galas.

Mick is a world-class clown (no really, he is!), as well as EnJoy's technical producer. He toured Europe for 6 years as a solo performer, cast member, and producer.

David is EnJoy's go-to creator of visual splendor, graphic animations, 3D environments and immersive interactivity. He's created homerun visual events for hundreds of companies.

WHAT WE DO BEST

Enjoy's team brings a combined 80 years of experience working with corporate clients produce and host extraordinary events that blend messaging, humor, music, graphics and spectacle.

Our sweet spot is utilizing narrative, character, visual storytelling and crisp transitions to transform ordinary gatherings into transformative experiences.

From full-length dinner theater shows to corporate conventions, from cnon-profit galas to team trainings in communication, we know how to deliver your message!

A SENSE OF TOGETHERNESS NO MATTER HOW FAR APART

We all need the human touch, even in these challenging times of bringing large groups together.

Enjoy Productions is here to help you bring joy and creativity to your group event.

From virtual zoom gatherings and interactions to full-blown immersive broadcasts, we are here to help provide creativity, energy and guidance.

AUCTIONS AND FUNDRAISING

Whether you want to do a fundraiser that is hosted and pre-recorded or live-streamed we've got you covered. Benefit from our experience with virtual fund-a-needs, as well as live and silent auctions.

We will tell your story with intimacy and flair in an event that can be used as a fund raising tool even after the cameras are turned off and the event is over.

LIVE STREAMED HOSTING

Equipped with a fantastic array of costuming, excellent filming and production elements, and partnering with some of the best venues and producers in the business, we will host your event with a customized look, scripting and customized event design that reflects your vision, culture and event goals.

INTERACTIVE IMMERSIVE GATHERINGS

Cutting-edge online experiences where guests can interact with one another, view video content, enjoy live streaming performances, navigate a playful, intriguing environment, and feel connected to their community.

Imagine 100 people gathering in a virtual landscape, each with their own avatar. They move about, encountering live music, videos, and more. As they get close to another person's avatar, their webcam with audio appears. Approach a group and join them! The possibilities are endless...

VIRTUAL PRODUCTION

Working with partners skilled in gaming technology, let us build a virtual world for your event, onto which you can map keynotes, hosting, games, chats, and more. The only constraint is your imagination.

INTERACTIVITY

Using a variety of virtual platforms, bring your team or guests together with quizzes, scavenger hunts, and other games. Competitions, tournaments, grand prizes and door prizes are all ways to engage and delight your attendees.

Imagine hiding gifts for guests near their homes with treasure hunt directions, or deliveries to their doors of gifts, food or drink by performers in costume all safely socially distanced and masked of course. If people can't come to the party, let's bring the party to the people.

CURATED PERFORMANCES

A physical or comic performance can deliver your message in a completely alternative way that resists the bland or banal.

Enjoy works with many of the worlds best skill artists in the realms of circus, music and comedy. Add dynamic, evocative elements to your virtual event with our amazing artists.

TRAINING & RETREATS

We can bring you subject matter experts to work with your teams on a wide variety of issues, from diversity to feedback to the neuroscience of stressful communication. Short or long form trainings available, as well as Keynotes.

DISTANCED, LIVE PERFORMANCES

Imagine a show where the performers (masked, socially distanced and safe) perform out of doors in locations where your guests watch from the comfort of their own vehicles. Interact with the performers by text messaging, watch the beauty unfold with spectacle and magic, and enjoy specially-packaged meals made just for you.

These unique events are crafted with the client to discover appropriate locations, themes and times of day for maximum beauty and wonder.
